

International Network for Bamboo And Rattan

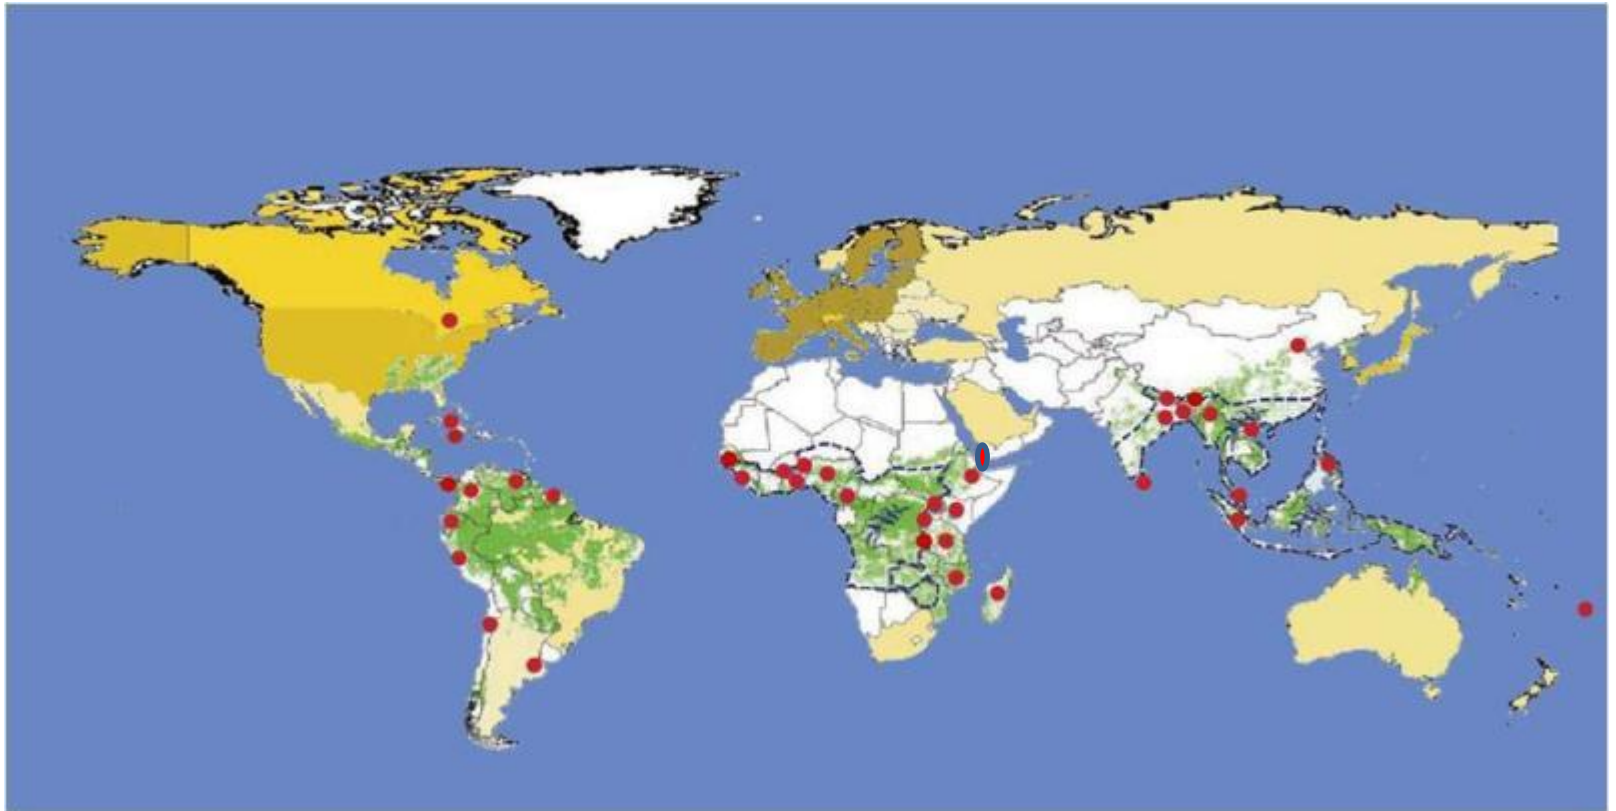

hfriederich@inbar.int

www.inbar.int

- Established in 1997 in China as a global Inter-Governmental Organization
- Improve the lives of the producers and users of bamboo and rattan through sustainable management, use and trade of the resources.
- International Commodity Body for bamboo and rattan since 2001

40

~~39~~ States, mainly from the Global South

- Headquarters in Beijing, China
- Regional offices in India, Ghana, Ethiopia, Ecuador
- Governed by a Council of Members
- Board of Trustees

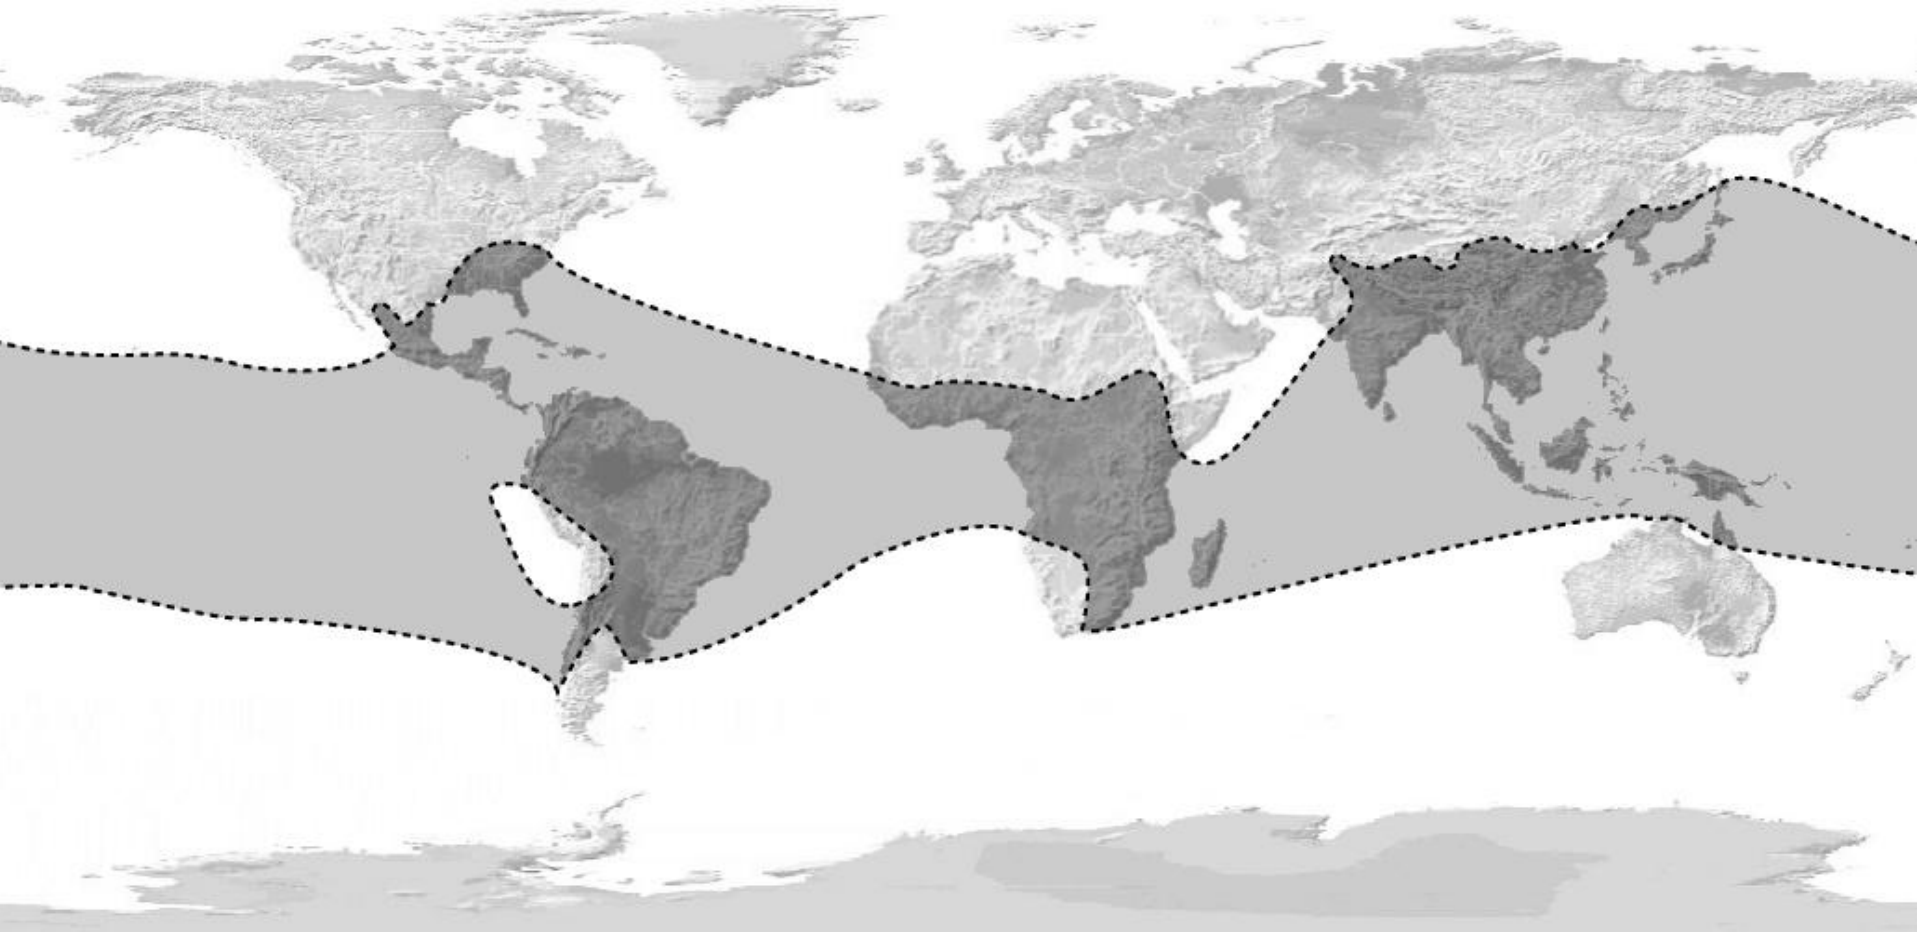

- 2015 – 2030
- International Development Organisation
- Support SDGs through bamboo and rattan
- Poverty; Energy; Housing; Ecosystems; Climate Change; Trade
- 4 Goals
 - Policy influence
 - Knowledge management
 - Capacity building
 - Applied field Research

Monopodial (Running) Bamboo

Sympodial (Clumping) Bamboo

- Landscape restoration in Sichuan, China in response to the 2008 Earthquake
- Bamboo charcoal production in Ethiopia and Ghana
- Affordable housing construction in Andes Region and Himalayas

- Landscape restoration
- Renewable energy
- Climate change mitigation
- Green construction and regulations
- Facilitating enabling environment for trade
- Sustainable management of rattan

