Please provide any general comments on the Appendix 1. Regarding measuring connectivity throughout framework with the currently identified headline indicators: There remains the need to elevate measurement, reporting, and implementation with a comprehensive ecological connectivity headline indicator that begins with chapeau language conveying the different elements that need to be addressed and measured. A subsequent step would identify and organize component and complimentary indicators that can be applied thereto to measure various aspects of structural and functional connectivity of terrestrial, marine, freshwater, and migratory connectivity that directly relate contributions toward measuring different aspects of the goals, milestones, and targets.
